A bill has been adopted by the House, which is designed to prevent competition between prison and free labor. It provides that all goods, wares, and merchandise manufactured wholly or in part by convict labor or in any prison or reformatory, transported into any State or territory for use, consumption, sale, or storage, shall be subject to the operation of the laws of the State upon their arrival within the borders of the State, and shall not be exempt from these laws by reason of being introduced in original packages or otherwise. Nearly all States have laws aimed at prison-made goods, but cannot enforce them against those imported from other States.

A Life And Death Fight.

Mr. W. A. Hines of Manchester, Ia., writing of his almost miraculous escape from death, says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in Consumption. The camp will be located on a beautiful spot on the shore of Lake Michigan, a short distance from Crystal Lake, and in a country that is rapidly becoming famous for its beautiful scenery, bracing atmosphere, clear waters, and excellent fishing.

—Excellent Values in White Dress Goods. Popular new pattern at —A party of B. G. people came over to Perrysburg last week Friday to try their luck at fishing. They were Mrs. May Evers Ross, Mrs. Dr. Lyda McKendry and Miss Froyne with Andy Joseph and E. M. Friess as assistants in procuring fish, boats and carrying the fish. Ex-Mayor Bowers was secured as guide and advisor and the party set out to strike terror to the hearts of the indolent carp that lazily hug the muddy bottom of the Maumee. Before going to the river, however, Dr. McKendry endeavored to have a small boy to go with the party and catch a few fish for them to carry home. For three hours the party whipped the waters of the river in a vain endeavor to capture a few carp, but their only reward was two lame craw-fish and one blind carp. The party now claim their poor luck was caused by Mr. Bowers securing left handed worms for bait.

—A merry crowd were entertained over Sunday at a house party given by Mrs. Esses and Mrs. Gierke of Perrysburg. Those fortunate enough to receive an invitation were Mr. and Mrs. Knopf, the Misses Margaret and Mayme Howell, Noonan, Wyck, Holzemer, Kelley, Loewenstein, Vetter and Rosenbaum. The following gentlemen spent the afternoon and evening Messrs. Carr, Schwind, Rice, Dr. Young, Mahr, Adkins, Jerome, Kirk, Novvak, Clark, and Fielding. The time was pleasantly spent with music, games and other amusements.

—Rudyard Kipling, Dr. S. Weir Mitchell, Ian Maclaren, Cyrus Townsend Brandy, Julia Magruder and Mrs. Burton Kingsdale are among the contributors to the June Ladies' Home Journal. Some of its notable features are: "The Passion Play This Year," "The Richest Woman in America" (Hetty Green), "How Some Familiar Things Came to Be," and "The Masterpiece of Mary, Queen of Scots," picturing an apron worked by that unfortunate sovereign while in prison awaiting the execution. By The Curtis Publishing Company, Philadelphia. One dollar a year; ten cents a copy.

—On Friday evening last, while E. P. Averill and wife were absent from their home for a short time, on their return at nine o'clock they discovered that burglars had ransacked the house and taken jewelry belonging to Mrs. A., among other things a watch which had been a present from her father, also her wedding ring. No clue to the burglars.

—Chas. Bartley of Chicago, attempted to assassinate his step-father, R. A. Bartley, the wholesale grocer of Toledo. He walked into the Bartley residence and without a word of explanation, fired at his victim. Two shots were fired only one taking effect. Bartley was not seriously injured. The son will be prosecuted although R. A. Bartley does not desire it. It is said the would be assassin was insanely jealous of his wife, and thought his step-father had alienated her affections.

It troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, gunsey, pains in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50c. For sale by A. R. Champey, Druggist.

A severe sprain will usually disable the injured person for three or four weeks. Many cases have occurred, however, in which a cure has been effected in less than a week by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by A. R. Champey, Druggist.
